

2021 The Energy Professionals Association COVID-19 Liability Waiver

Attendee assumes all risks and accepts sole responsibility for any injury (including, but not limited to, personal injury, disability, and death), illness, damage, loss, claim, liability, or expense, of any kind, that attendee may experience or incur in connection with attending the 2021 The Energy Professionals Association (TEPA) Conference and Events. Attendee hereby releases, covenants not to sue, discharges, and holds harmless TEPA, its employees, agents, and representatives, of and from any such claims, including all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs, or expenses of any kind arising out of or relating thereto.

Attendee acknowledges the highly contagious nature of COVID-19 and voluntarily assumes the risk of exposure or infection by attending the 2021 TEPA Conference and Events. Exposure or infection may result in personal injury, illness, disability, and/or death to attendee. Attendee understands that the risk of becoming exposed to or infected by COVID-19 may result from the actions, omissions, or negligence of others who may attend the 2021 TEPA Conference and Events or their families, colleagues, or others with whom they may have contact. Accordingly, attendee understands and agrees that this release includes any claims based on the actions, omissions, or negligence of TEPA, its employees, agents, and representatives, whether a COVID-19 infection occurs before, during, or after participation in the event.

In addition to all other rules and regulations relating to the attendee's attendance at the 2021 TEPA Conference and Events, attendee agrees to comply with all COVID-related procedures that may be implemented by TEPA, its host hotel, and any event venues, including, but not limited to, mask-wearing, hand-sanitizing, and social distancing requirements in order to protect the health and safety of all conference attendees.
